

Brussels Attacks: Iranian State Television claims European ‘only have themselves to blame’ for the terror attacks

ARCHumankind condemns the sarcastic message transferred to Iranian citizens about the series of terror attacks launched in Brussels 22nd March, 2016 at Brussels Airport and Brussels public underground system.

ARCHumankind remains outraged that Iranian State television would make a mockery of the High Representative Vice President Federica Mogherini on the basis of her human reaction to those who had lost their lives and were targeted by ISIL acclaimed terrorists.

The channel continued their ridicule by insinuating that Europe ‘only had themselves to blame’ and that perhaps now Europe might “feel close-up the fear and horror that the Syrian people have endured over the past 5 years, created by the interferences of their (European) politicians”.

These acts committed by Jihadist militants are acts of heinous violence and the Iranian State television implying that “European decision-makers are supporting terrorist acts” can only be seen as an incitement for the Jihadi aggression against Europe.

Whereas the European institutions have unduly decided to forget the well-documented co-operation of the Iranian authorities with the creation of an Al-Qaeda branch in Iraq in 2001 and the Syrian regime logistical support to this organisation from 2003 up to 2011 – in the vain hope this memory erasing exercise would make the theocracy to behave better – the insulting attitude of the Iranian authorities vindicates the point of view of all those who warned against this kind of appeasement attitude.

ARCHumankind notes that the concrete operational steps from the former Al Qaeda branch in Mesopotamia towards the aggression of Europe started at least in 2012, well before the split of this Jihadi branch from her mother and the proclamation of the Caliphate. This fact is now well and publicly documented by Western information services (see for instance http://www.nytimes.com/2016/03/29/world/europe/isis-attacks-paris-brussels.html?_r=1).

ARCHumankind reiterates its calls for the European Union to take decisive action against all Jihadi forces slaughtering Syrian and Iraqi people and provoking a refugee crisis, may it be the case of ISIS, Hezbollah or any of the several other Islamic fundamentalist forces present in the area. This is the only coherent, logic and successful strategy to end the so-called refugee crisis.

ARCHumankind presents its full solidarity with the High Representative Vice President Federica Mogherini and considers the insults to her to be insults to the European people and to all those who share humane values.
